

CLIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The philosophy of the Elevate Mental Health is based on recognition of human dignity and respect for the individual. Therefore, we are dedicated to the protection of the rights of individuals using our services and promise to uphold these rights.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLIENT AT THE Elevate Mental Health ARE:

1. To be treated with respect, courtesy, and professional competence.
2. To receive services that are appropriate for your language of preference.
3. To ask questions at any time, and to expect direct, honest answers.
4. To understand and to assist in setting goals, methods, and expect time limits of the services you are receiving.
5. To review your records, if you so desire. Review will take place at the Elevate Mental Health and the client will be accompanied by the Elevate Mental Health staff member who will be available to discuss the material.
6. To be informed that the Elevate Mental Health provides internships to university students who may provide services to clients under the appropriate supervision.
7. To meet the agency director if you are not satisfied with the way your concerns are handled.
8. To have information about you treated as strictly confidential, unless:
 - a. You or your guardian give written permission to the Elevate Mental Health to release specific types of information regarding your case to specific persons or agencies.
 - b. There is reasonable cause to believe that a child or vulnerable adult is being neglected, or physically or sexually abused.
 - c. There is sufficient reason to believe that a client may do bodily harm to self or others. In such a case, appropriate persons or agencies will be contacted in order to prevent such injury.
 - d. The Elevate Mental Health is subpoenaed by court of law to release information.
9. To be assisted with making arrangements for transportation home in the event that you, the client, are under the influence of mood-altering chemicals.
10. To resume receiving services at the Elevate Mental Health after above incidents, after consulting with Your counselor/ worker.
11. To refuse to give any information at any time, understanding that doing so may affect the ability of the Elevate Mental Health staff to serve you.
12. To be informed that, if you are a minor (under 18), you may have legal right to request that information about you not be reported to your parents. This request needs to be in writing.
13. To be aware that the Elevate Mental Health receives funds from government agencies and private foundations which require statistics such as numbers of clients served, place of residence, and income level. Names of clients are not reported

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES TO Elevate Mental Health :

1. To keep appointments and to notify the Elevate Mental Health as soon as possible if you are unable to do so.
2. To be an active participant contributing your ideas and questions.
3. To let your worker know if you are dissatisfied with the services you are receiving.
4. To arrive at the Elevate Mental Health for appointments free from the influence of any mood altering chemicals.
5. To leave the Elevate Mental Health premises at the request of the staff person in charge of your counselor/worker if you are under the influence of any mood altering chemicals.
6. To give your car keys to the staff person in charge of your counselor/worker if you are under the influence of any mood altering chemicals. This is for your safety and the safety of other.

I have read, or my worker has explained to me, my rights and responsibilities as a Elevate Mental Health client.

Signature

Date